DEDICATION

We, the class of 1986, dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Donna Demetri and Mrs. Robin Walker.

We wish to thank them and show our appreciation for their four years of assistance and friendship.

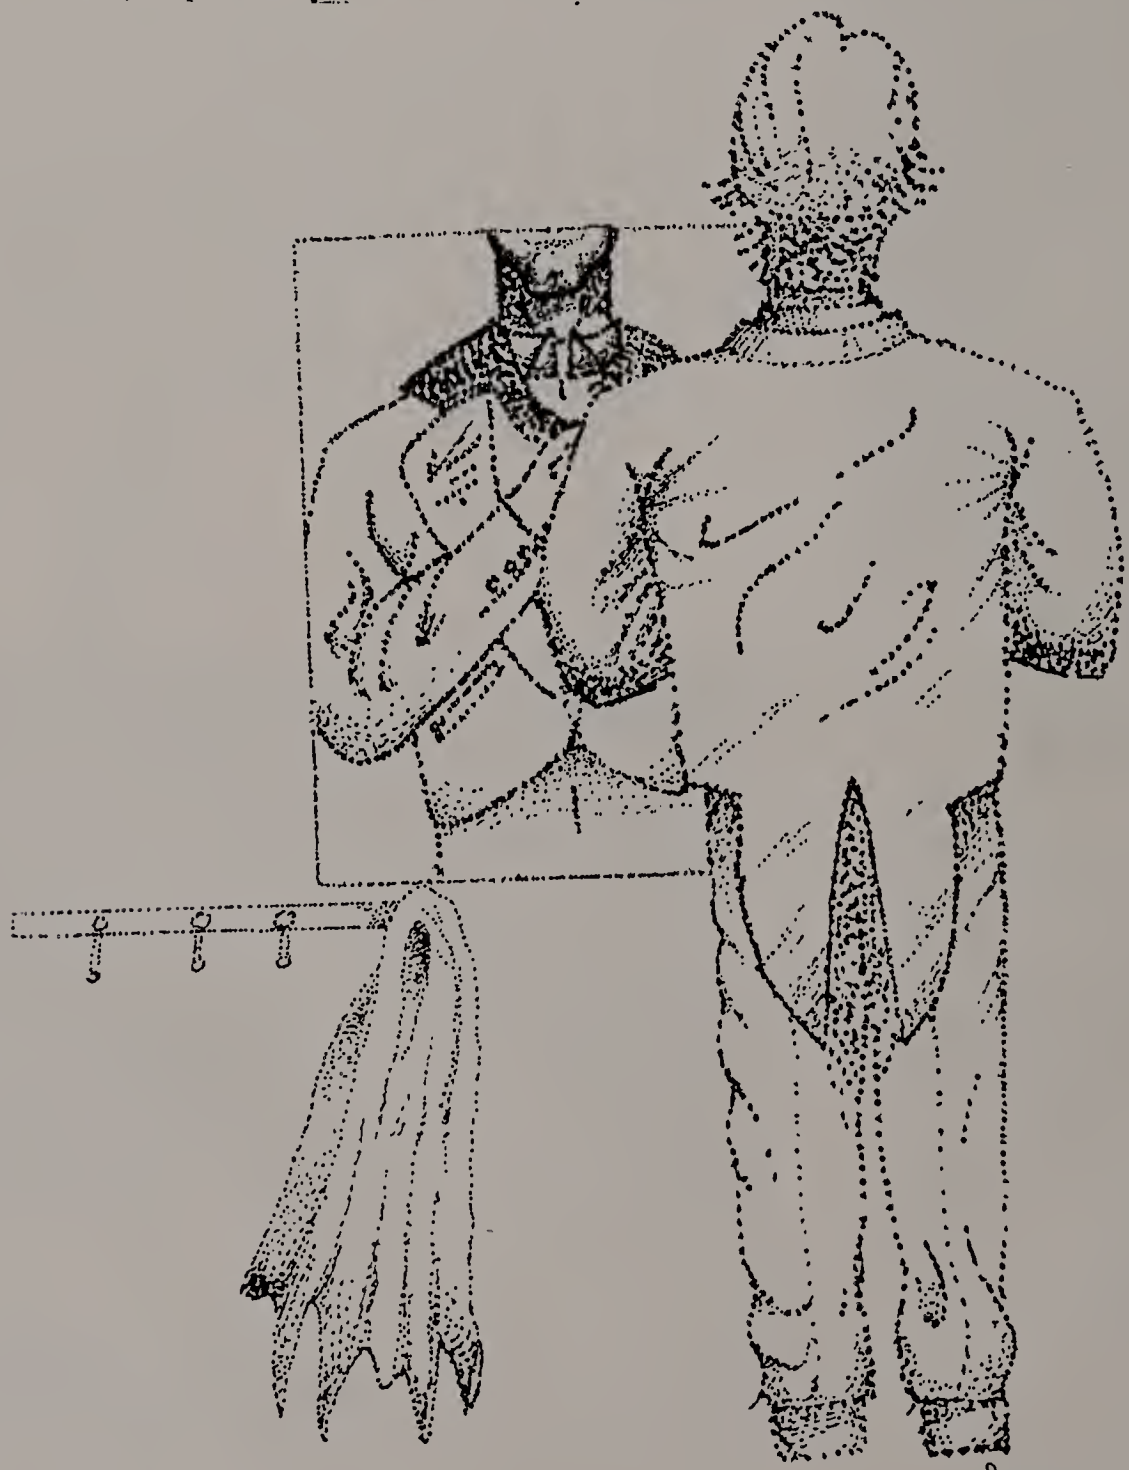

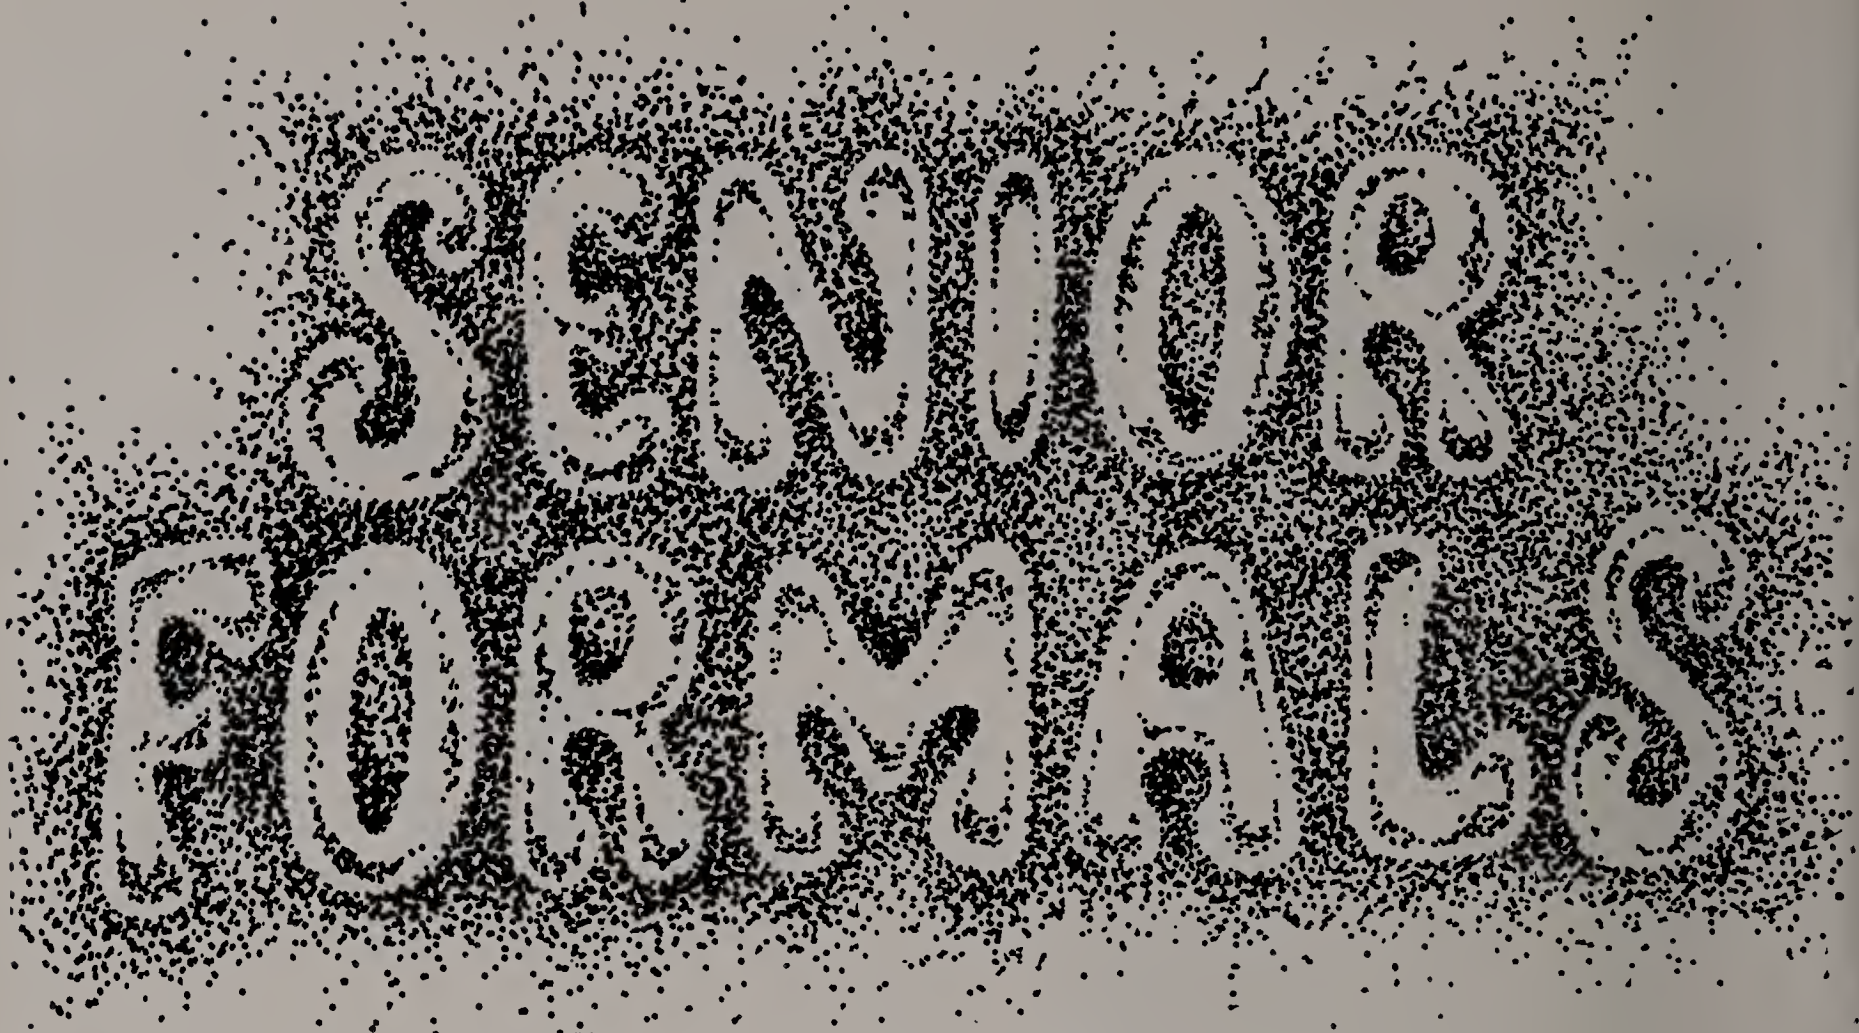

In Memory Of

Mrs. Mary Murphy

For those of us who knew Mrs. Murphy, as a teacher, as a friend, or both, we may surely say that we miss this friendly sweet woman with all our hearts. The memory of her in our lives will always be with us.

Class History

1986

Freshman year began in September of '82. We came to Nauset not quite knowing what to expect; frightened of the transition from the top of the heap to the bottom of the crop. Amazingly enough we managed to survive! (somehow). The annual Halloween dance was our first introduction to Nauset social life, and as usual started the ball rolling full speed. Friday night dances and basketball games became regular events from this point on. Despite the success of such social events, there was no topping the two outstanding drama productions, "Flowers for Algernon" and "West Side Story".

The beginning of sophomore year '83-'84 was a relief for many - we were no longer freshmen. (free at last!). We began the year with the ritual magazine drive. All our hard work paid off later as the earnings helped us sponsor several successful upperclass activities. Once again, the Halloween and Christmas dances provided fun and excitement for everyone, as did the two plays, "You Can't Take It with You" and "Splendor in the Grass".

Next came the big move to upperclassmen — junior year! This was when we first began to notice "how small the freshmen are". Courses became more difficult and required more of our attention. However, we were easily distracted by all that was going on around us. This year's German exchange program brought Americans there but not Germans here; it was truly an adventure for all those involved. The junior and senior classes combined for a little refreshment, perking up spring with a live band at the toga dance on March 15th. Before we knew it, it was time for this year's play "Bye Bye Birdie". May 4th brought prom '85 - without a doubt the social event of the year. We began decorating for graduation, wondering when our turn would come.

September '85 brought senior year quickly upon us, although the feeling of being on top was long overdue. We entered the year with record-breaking changes in the faculty and administration; a period of adjustment for all. Although we were sad to see so many teachers leave, it was good to see the changes. The new faculty members refreshed us with the intelligence, experience, and wit that they had brought with them. Discussion of the new discipline policy became common among peer conversation. Preparing college applications took up too much of our time; deadlines were upon us as we embarked upon the final leg of our senior year. The senior banquet on March 2nd began our descent fantastically. The spring passed quickly with only the play "Vaudeville is my Home" and the prom '86 on May 10th between us and graduation. Despite the success of these affairs, it's the friendships we've made that we will remember long after the thrills of past events have been forgotten. Our graduation on June 1st was the grand finale in a long line of transitions - both as a class, and on a personal level. It is for this reason that all members of the class of '86 should leave Nauset with a sense of pride and accomplishment and enter the "real world" with confidence.

Exchange Students

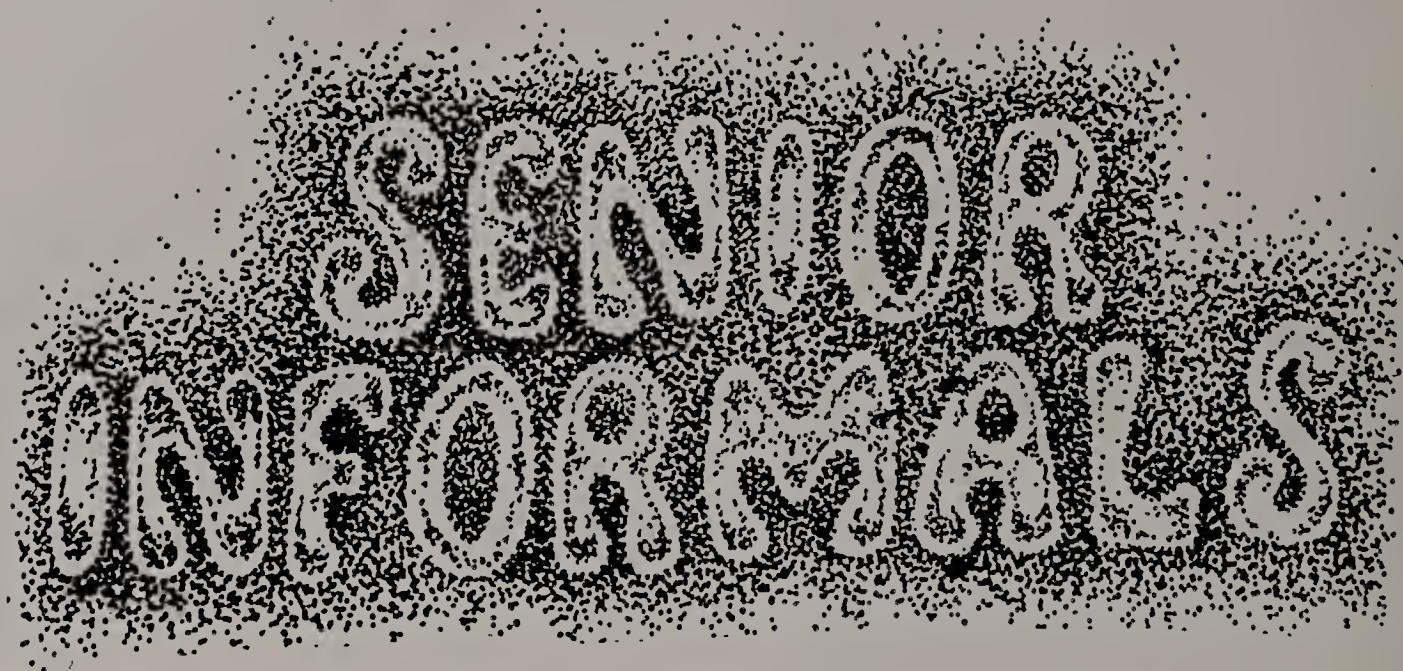

Veronica Calderon

I came from Quito, the capital of Ecuador, South America. My year here was a learning experience. I'm the only child in my home, that's why my brothers here, Buddy, Duane and Eric Escher mean so much to me. The United States is so different of what I thought. I discovered that our countries have things in common although we have so many differences. "Can't judge a book by it's cover.". My plans for the future are uncertain now, I want to study here but I also want to stay in my country. "Take one step at a time" as Mom Lynn will say. This year will stay in my memory forever. I'll always remember the friends I have made here.

Karin Rion

Well Nauset, a year has come, a year has gone . . . People have come, people have gone . . . I have come and I am going . . . but the memories will last. The year has not been easy but it has been unique. Like anyone who leaves home, I have taken a risk, but it has been worth it. I have grown, I have experienced life. Now it is your turn: Now that you leave, remember to be open. I know it is hard to accept someone who doesn't understand all of your gestures or all your words. But remember that it is hard to arrive in a new community and wait until the sixth month to have "friends" or feel that you have one foot into one of the groups. So, do it. AFS is a way to do it. Take your chance . . . Bonne Chance and God bless . . .

PATRICK AUSTIN: "Later . . ."

"Waiting for the sun"

JON BADAMS: Jeepstah!! Thanks 2 all for making me feel like this is home. "Tunes" Lobstahh; glorious showers. The hand lives! "Busted!" RL + PR DR, "What's a pudahead?" YVS2M,SG. GET INTO BOOKS

Would you like stories that surprise you
and/or hypnotize you,
a mystery, a history,
a volume to advise you
how to fix a motor,
build your own computer,
use a tape recorder,
get along with mother?
How about a voyage
into outer space, romance with an Alien
of a future race?
Then dip in, dig in,
grapple in with hooks,
dive in, delve in,
GET INTO BOOKS.
